

Directions to the Max Planck UCL Centre for Computational Psychiatry and Ageing Research at 10-12 Russell Square, London, WC1B 5EH (a stone's throw or short walk from Queen Square)

How to get to Queen Square

By Tube/Bus:

Queen Square is halfway between the Holborn (Piccadilly and Central Lines) and Russell Square (Piccadilly Line) Tube stations. Tube/Bus journey planners and times can be found here.

By Car:

There is limited car-parking in Queen Square which requires 'Pay & Display' (Mon-Fri 08:30-18:30 & Sat 08:30-11:30). The traffic wardens are notoriously efficient. There is an NCP car park near the Brunswick Centre.

By Rail:

Queen Square is roughly half a mile south of St. Pancras, Kings Cross and Euston Stations. From Kings Cross, Russell Square underground is one stop on the Piccadilly Line. Euston Station it is a short walk down Woburn Place. Times and fares are available from here.

By Air:

London Heathrow is on the Piccadilly Line, journey time one hour. Gatwick Airport has a fast link with London Victoria Station, journey time 30-35 mins and London Stansted has a fast connection to London Liverpool Street Station, journey time 45 mins.

